

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

∞ The Torah u-Madda Journal publishes manuscripts that either (1) address the question of Judaism's relationship to general culture, whether in the broad sense or in the context of a specific discipline or field; or (2) exemplify the integration of Jewish and general knowledge in the treatment of a specific topic. The journal appears annually.

∞ Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate hard copy, typed on 8½" x 11" paper with ample margins on all sides. All material should be double spaced, including notes and block quotations. Notes should appear at the end of the manuscript, beginning on a new page, rather than as footnotes on the bottoms of the pages. Use the automatic note numbering feature of your word processing program when you compose the endnotes, so that notes can easily be renumbered if necessary. After a manuscript is accepted, the author will be expected to supply an electronic file.

∞ The author's name should not be disclosed on the manuscript, as the journal's policy is to withhold this information from referees. The following information should be included on a separate cover sheet: author's name, professional affiliation, mailing address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address.

∞ A guide to our transliteration style and reference format appears in the back of this issue.

∞ Manuscripts and letters intended for publication should be sent to: Dr. David Shatz, Editor, The Torah u-Madda Journal, Stern College for Women, Yeshiva University, 245 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10016. Correspondence other than submissions may be sent to the editor at shatz@yu.edu.
